NOTICE

Participation in Two-Day National Level Seminar

All students, teachers, and staff members of Jamalpur Mahavidyalaya are hereby informed that the Department of History, Jamalpur Mahavidyalaya, is organizing an Indian Council of Historical Research (ICHR), New Delhi Sponsored Two-Day National Level Seminar on the theme:

“Bengali Renaissance and Indian Knowledge Traditions: Dialogues of Reform, Revival and Modernity”

Date: 29–30 September 2026

Venue: Jamalpur Mahavidyalaya

The seminar will provide an important academic platform for meaningful discussion and exchange of ideas on the intellectual, social, cultural, and historical dimensions of the Bengali Renaissance and its interface with Indian Knowledge Traditions, particularly in relation to reform, revival, rationalism, modernity, and the evolution of modern Indian society.

In view of the academic significance of the programme, all students, teachers, and staff members are cordially requested to attend the seminar and actively participate in the deliberations. Students are especially encouraged to make the best use of this opportunity to interact with distinguished scholars, researchers, and academicians participating in the seminar.

The cooperation and active participation of all concerned are earnestly solicited to make the seminar academically enriching and successful.
