short introduction of the department- The department of English at Jamalpur Mahavidyalaya, located in a rural and economically backward area, serves as a resource for its community. Most of the students are first generation learners, which presents unique challenges and opportunities. Our aims to empower students with critical thinking, communication skills and a deeper understanding of English literature and language, thus preparing them for various academic and professional opportunities. The faculty, including dedicated teachers like myself, are committed to providing quality education and support to these students.
