

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

Introduction of Department: History Department is one of the best Department in Jamalpur Mahavidyalaya History Department was established in 2009 as a general(pass)subject, whereby since 2010 History has been taught as a Honours subject. The department has 5 dedicated and committed Teaching staff, engaged in imparting quality education to the students. The department monitors overall performance of students through regular assessments, evaluating the learners progress through class tests assignments and projects. The department organizes exhibitions, quizzes, debates, cultural programmes which improves the student-teacher interactions. The department also conducts parent-teachers meeting on a regular basis to facilitate communication between them. The department has an annual wall magazine named “Oitijhya”, where students and faculty members showcase their creativity and critical thinking.

Vision : Building a solid foundation in basic historical academic knowledge for the students is our prime vision with a strong emphasis on practical aspects of the knowledge of history for the benefit of our society. We continually encourage and help students to actively participate and get engage in different other areas like cultural and social activities too.

Mission : Our mission is to provide students with a deep understanding of historical events, movements, and developments across regions and time periods. By examining the past critically, students gain insight into the forces that have shaped societies and individuals, enabling them to comprehend the present and envision the future. We empower students to think critically, analyze evidence, and construct informed arguments. Through the study of history, students learn to evaluate sources, assess conflicting narratives, and form independent perspectives. These skills are invaluable for navigating complex issues and making informed decisions in various personal, professional, and civic contexts.
