Sanskrit department of Jamalpur Mahavidyalaya was established on 2009. Honours course was introduced on 2014. Our department is presently following the CBCS curriculum programme of study along with NEP 2020 which provide an essential platform in delivering deeper insight of the subjects and an interdisciplinary and holistic approach to study. At present the department has one full time teacher and four SACT teachers. Sanskrit department is dedicated to fostering a deep appreciation for language, literature and critical thinking. We offer a range of courses designed to enhance communication skills ,explore literary tradition, and engage with diverse perspectives. Our faculty are passionate educators and scholars who are committed to helping students to develop their writing powers and analytical abilities.

Our departmental moto is “Basudhaibo Kutumbakam”- conveys the message that the world is one family. The globe symbolizes the interconnectedness and unity of all people, transcending geographical boundaries. The family symbol signifies inclusivity, harmony and a sense of belonging within our department.

Overall our logo embodies the values of global unity, familial bond and cultural richness that define our department's ethos and aspirations.

Vision:

- Introducing students with the various branches of Indian knowledge System, Culture and Civilization.
- Identifying Ancient Indian wisdom depicted in Sanskrit Shastric and Literary works reflected in Indian Culture coping up with modern era without losing its essence.

Mision:

- To make awareness of importance of Sanskrit learning among the students community from primary and among the general people.
- Providing a conducting environment for learning that prepares the students to achieve all types of meaningfulness in their lives as responsible individuals as well as global citizens.
